That any estimate is not a reserve price.

Labelling of entriesPlease ensure that all lots are clearly labelled with your client number and that this form is completed. The porter has absolute discretion to refuse items considered unsuitable for the sale.
Any lots which fail to attract a bid will be disposed of the following week unless collected immediately after the sale.Right of TitleThe Seller warrants to Locke & England and to the Buyer that he has and will be able to transfer good and marketable title to lots entered free from all third party rights or claims on the fall of the hammer.Lots withdrawn prior to the sale will be charged at 15% of the reserve or Auctioneers' estimate plus VAT.Electrical TestingAll portable single purchase electrical appliances are tested for safety and a £3 charge is made per test (pass or fail). All items must have an approved plug fitted.PaymentVendor settlement of the net proceeds of sale after deduction of charges is made by cheque or by Bank Transfer approximately 21 days after the sale.
The Auctioneers may at their discretion withhold payment on any lot until the purchaser of that lot has settled their account. It is agreed that the Auctioneers take their charges on completion of the sale and may earn interest on credit balances.
